Positioning

«Schweizer Luftwaffe» is the annual publication of the Swiss Air Force. The resources, duties and missions of the Air Force and anti-aircraft defence of the relevant year are presented in an attractive layout and in fascinating feature stories. The main focus lies on current issues – such as the acquisition of new jet fighters. The magazine further comprises an interview with a decision-maker and reportages with stunning photographs.

The german texts are accompanied by french summaries. In addition, the foreword is published in German, French and Italian; all picture captions are in German and French. The annual publication is available since 2002 and has by now become a coveted collector's item.

«Schweizer Luftwaffe» targets the following readership:

- Air Force employees
- militia military personnel
- employees of Swiss aeronautical companies and the defence industry
- friends of the Swiss Army in general and in particular of the Swiss Air Force
- aviation experts and fans
